Application requirements

The following must accompany this application:

1 A presentation by the applicant addressing the role of horses and riding in her daily life; how she would benefit from attending New Meadow, and why she would be the best scholarship candidate. Presentations are to include a written essay that may be supported by original artwork, photography, music or video.

2 A description of financial need by the applicant's parents

3 A completed application to the New Meadow overnight riding camp

4 Two letters of recommendation from adults outside the applicant's family. Please list those references here:

1st reference _____ 2nd reference _____

Phone _____ Phone _____

Email _____ Email _____

❑ New Meadow Farm has permission to contact the references listed above.

Additional considerations

1 The applicant must be available to attend camp for the entire length of the session for which she seeks scholarship funds.
2 New Meadow is a small, family-run camp and is not equipped to support children with special needs — physical or emotional. All applicants must be physically able to participate in the full range of camp activities.
